

Linacre Ethics Forum 2008/2009

Bioethics from a Catholic perspective.

An opportunity for junior health professionals and students (medics, nurses, pharmacists etc. are welcome!) to explore and discuss Catholic healthcare ethics. The aim will be to understand the Church's teaching and find ways in which we can present it sympathetically to patients, colleagues and managers.

Tuesday 7th October Still want to be a good Catholic medic? - Dr Charlie O'Donnell

Tuesday 4th November Brain Death - Professor David Jones

Tuesday 2nd December General Practice Dilemmas - Dr Mike Delany

Tuesday 3rd February Therapy and Spiritual Direction in Healthcare: a resource -
Fr Anthony Doe

Tuesday 3rd March Post-Abortion Syndrome - Dr Pravin Thevathasan

Tuesday 31st March Prenatal Testing - Dr Helen Watt

Tuesday 5th May The Mental Capacity Act - panel discussion

Time:

(5.30pm	Mass in Westminster Cathedral)
6.30pm	Tea/Coffee
7pm	Talk
7.30pm	Discussion
8.30pm	Finish (retire to pub/cafe)

Location: Vaughan House, SW1P 1QN
(behind Westminster Cathedral)

For further information, or to find your local rep, please contact Stephen Barrie on 020 72667410, via www.linacre.org/forum.htm or at stephen@linacre.org