

Linacre Ethics Forum 2009 / 2010

Exploring bioethics: a Catholic perspective.

An opportunity for junior health professionals and students (scientists, medics, nurses, pharmacists etc. are welcome!) to explore and discuss Catholic healthcare ethics. The aim will be to understand the Church's teaching and explore ways in which we can present it sympathetically to patients, colleagues and managers.

Tuesday 27th October	Challenging ethics - Dr Anthony Towey
(Saturday 7th November	Day conference in Vaughan House, organised by Dr Charlie O'Donnell & Dr Mike Delany - 'So you want to be a good Catholic doctor?' For more information, please contact Mike on drmgs84@hotmail.com)
Tuesday 19th January	Dilemmas in healthcare: some case scenarios - Dr Luke Howard
Tuesday 16th February	Abortion, legal and illegal - Dr Michael Jarmulowicz
Tuesday 2nd March	Ethics in bioscience - Professor Nicanor Austriaco OP
Tuesday 20th April	What is the right response to suffering in palliative care? - Stephen Cole (RTH) ORH
Tuesday 25th May	Crisis pregnancy counselling - Sr Andrea Fraile

Time:	(5.30pm	Mass in Westminster Cathedral)
	6.30pm	Tea/Coffee
	7pm	Talk
	7.30pm	Discussion
	8.30-9pm	Finish (retire to pub/cafe)

Location: Vaughan House, SW1P 1QN
(behind Westminster Cathedral)

For further information, other events in Oxford and London, or to find your local rep, please contact Stephen Barrie on 01865 610 212 or at stephen@linacre.org

Kindly supported by the Department of Pastoral Affairs,
Diocese of Westminster

